The Ukraine Crisis and African Economies

Exposure and Vulnerability to Global Wheat and Vegetable Oils Trade and Market Disruptions: Case Study of Malawi

In response to the Russia-Ukraine conflict and its impact on African countries, AKADEMIYA2063 developed the Ukraine Crisis Brief Series, a comprehensive research series to provide evidence-based simulations of the ramifications of the crisis. Hinged upon data, analytics, and past crisis patterns, the AKADEMIYA2063 Ukraine Crisis Brief Series analyzes the economic and socio-economic impacts of global market disruptions induced by the Russia-Ukraine conflict. These research findings are published on AKADEMIYA2063's Ukraine Crisis and African Economies portal.

Session XV of the AKADEMIYA2063 Ukraine Crisis Webinar Series will examine Malawi's exposure and vulnerability to global wheat and vegetable oil trade and market disruptions.

Based on AKADEMIYA2063's Ukraine Brief 24, "Exposure and Vulnerability to Global Wheat and Vegetable Oils Trade and Market Disruptions: Malawi Case Study," this session will investigate how the Russia-Ukraine war has affected global trade and market disruptions that are being transmitted to African economies via various channels, with a focus on Malawi.

The speaker will also examine how prices of individual commodities such as fertilizers, wheat products, vegetable oils, oilseed products, and their close local substitutes are changing within domestic economic sectors, with higher wheat prices resulting in generalized food price increases across urban and rural households.
